GENERAL RULES:

- April 30 is the standard recognized age cutoff date to determine players age. I.E. Your player is 12 years old April 30 then turns 13 on May 1 or later then your player is eligible to play 12U
- MHSAA rules apply unless specified differently
- Lineup – 9U - 12U. All teams will use a continuous batting order (rocket rule, free substitution). All players in uniform, on the roster MUST bat in a line-up established prior to the game starting. Late arriving players will be entered into the line-up at the end of the batting order unless the batting team has gone through the order one time, and then the late arriving player may not enter the line-up.

- Lineup 13U – 14U may decide to use a continuous lineup (rocket rule free substitution) OR bat 9 players. A DH (designated Hitter) can be used hitting for a person playing in the field and/or an EH (extra hitter) can be used for a 10th hitter in any part of the hitting lineup.
- Team rosters. All teams must start a game with a minimum of 8 players in the batting order, however each batting spot less than 9 becomes an automatic out when that turn in the order comes up.
- Players may only play for ONE team in the TVBL tournament for the safety and fairness of everyone. If a player plays for more than one team in the TVBL Tournament the player will be ejected from the entire tournament, and teams that participated in rostering the player may forfeit games.
- If a batter bats out of order, the proper batter is called out. Any hit or advance made by the batter or runners due to the hit, walk, error or other reason is nullified. The next batter is the one who follows the proper batter who was called out. Any appeal regarding an out-of-order batter must be made prior to a pitch being delivered to the next proper batter.
- Pitchers once removed cannot return in same game as a pitcher.
- A courtesy runner is allowed for the pitcher and catcher of the current (not previous not next) inning and must be the last batter that made an out or a player not currently in the lineup.
- Infield fly rule IS in effect.
